BOOK AND FAMILY DIRECTORY.

Rec<sup>d</sup> Feb'y 23, 1895

BUFFALO HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

HOW AND WHEN TO CALL.

You call within a week, and in person, after a dinner party to which one has been invited.

Call within a week after any entertainment to which one has been invited.

Enclose cards when inviting a new acquaintance upon whom one has never called, although it is better to call before sending out such an invitation.

Call after an engagement has been announced, or a marriage has taken place in the family.

We call upon an acquaintance who has recently returned from a prolonged absence.

Ascertain what are the prescribed hours for calling in the place where one is living, or making a visit, and to adhere to those hours.

After a removal from one part of the city to another send out cards with one's new address upon them.

For the older residents in the city or street call upon the first newcomers to their neighborhood.

L Return a first call within a week and in person.

Call promptly and in person after a first invitation.

Make the first call upon people in a higher social position if one is asked to do so, or if they are newcomers.

The caller who arrived first should leave first.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

This is the sixth issue of THE BUFFALO ADDRESS BOOK AND FAMILY DIRECTORY.

Business houses, professional men and women, schools, social clubs and families, who, after thoroughly testing its usefulness, give THE ADDRESS BOOK the strongest endorsement, and have found it indispensable.

Experienced canvassers have been employed, and every idea of any value suggested has been adopted to make this issue more valuable than former issues.

If there be any — as there must be — whose names do not appear, the omission must be attributed to the difficulties of the undertaking, not to deliberate exclusion.

In some cases where the canvassers were refused at the door, the names have either been omitted, or as full information as possible gained at second hand, the correctness of which we cannot vouch for, in all cases.

The publishers would state, the object of THE ADDRESS BOOK is not to draw arbitrary social boundary lines, but to give, in compact form, the names of householders with their residences and exact numbers for the convenience of patrons and the public generally, to whom they trust it may, with the increased amount of matter it contains, prove an invaluable compendium of local information.

A word for our advertisers, who are the leading houses in their lines in the city and to whom we would recommend the users of THE BUFFALO ADDRESS BOOK when making their purchases.

PREFACE.

THE BUFFALO ADDRESS BOOK AND FAMILY DIRECTORY was first published ten years ago, in order to supply the need of a "Blue Book," or better, a Family Directory, which had been felt from the time our smaller community was merged into a flourishing and rapidly growing city of over three hundred thousand inhabitants.

THE ADDRESS BOOK is of a convenient size, making it suitable alike for the library-table and the counting room. In its new binding it is a handsomer and prettier book than any of the issues of former years.

Business firms, teachers, ministers, schools, charity organizations, clubs and hostesses have found it indispensable.

Much of the information which it contains, as it relates to clubs, to societies, and to the personnel of the press, is official, and does not appear elsewhere in so handy a form.

In the "Table of Contents" will be found the reference "Too Late for Classification," which covers such names and changes as were received after that portion of the book had been printed, where the correct information properly belonged.

The Publishers have issued a larger edition than formerly, encouraged by the increased number of subscriptions received by the canvassers while getting information for the book.

A careful estimate has been made, and found that THE BUFFALO ADDRESS BOOK AND FAMILY DIRECTORY contains Eighteen Thousand names in the Street List.

THE constant increase in the rate of travel makes it incumbent upon the mercantile bank to satisfy its customers with every facility for undertaking foreign tours. In order to meet this need the Bank of Buffalo has provided a small room as a quiet part of its banking office called the TRAVELERS ROOM. This little apartment, about twelve feet by eight in size, is decorated in Oriental style, lighted by gas and electricity, ornamented with photographs of the old world and provided with a convenient desk and shelves. Here the intending traveler may from the very inception of the idea of a trip abroad perfect all his arrangements. Having decided upon the firm proposition of where to go, he must choose his STEAMER and for his purpose he will find in the WORLD'S BOOK OF SAILINGS which give the date of departure and return, for weeks ahead, of every steamer on all of the great lines of ocean travel. His boat selected he may now pick out his stateroom, as in compartments below the desk he will find DIAGRAMS OF EACH STEAMER, showing berth and deck arrangements.

Supplements to this are GUIDE BOOKS for all quarters of the globe, including the latest names of the standard works, with some rare volumes ready, on parts of the world not often visited.

Another feature of the Traveler's Room is a small BULLETIN BOARD which records the daily arrivals, both in New York and of foreign ports, of the principal steamers. This is kept promptly up to date and is of great interest to those who are watching for the whereabouts of friends or relatives.

In the matter of ARRANGEMENTS FOR MONEY every modern convenience is offered by LETTERS OF CREDIT, DRAFTS AND CHEQUE BANK CHEQUES. Express Money Orders, Bank of England Notes and English, French and German gold and silver etc. etc. are also available. It is always ready for letters of credit to come on. The bank has on hand a provision of a hundred thousand of the letters of credit of Brown Bros. & Co., signed by a bank which may be cashed out at a moment's notice, and are AVAILABLE IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD. Thus the traveler may get his share of the bank's facilities at any time after noon, before banking hours, for money to take.

To save LETTERS OF INTRODUCTION and of advantage the bank will take the place of a letter to various persons and places etc. It is a safe and a handy way to give credit on letters and as security for credits.

PASSPORTS which are now quite necessary for extended travel are issued promptly.

It is more completely covered the ground seems hardly possible and the traveler for any part of the world—Europe, Asia or Africa, as well as Central America or the West Indies—will find himself well prepared if he avails himself of the advantages offered.

MR. WILLIAM NICHOLS'S
Private Classical School
. FOR BOYS .

THE object of this school is to fit boys in the most thorough manner for the leading universities and the technical schools. Pupils will be received who have reached the age of nine years.

The school will occupy a new building especially constructed for the purpose, from designs of Messrs. Green & Wicks. No effort has been spared to secure perfect ventilation, lighting and heating, and every sanitary condition.

The school year begins September 28, until then letters may be addressed to Mr. Nichols in care of Messrs. Peter Paul & Brother, afterwards, to the school building.

WHY IS IT?

That Everybody Calls for

— MADE BY —

Z. & W. M. CRANE,
DALTON, MASS.

Because! It is without question the very best paper made in this country, for Correspondence, Invitations and Regrets. . . .

The Envelopes are always an exact match with the Paper, and are known for their perfection in being high cut, under the lapel, preventing the gum from adhering to the sheet enclosed.

BREAKFASTS.

There is comparatively little formal breakfast giving in Buffalo, but a breakfast can be made a delightfully informal entertainment. It is a popular party at country houses.

Invitations may be verbal, or in note form, and need not be sent out more than a day or two in advance.

The beauty of a breakfast is its freshness and simplicity. The table is simply trimmed and the meal is noticeably lighter than luncheon.

Fruit, omelette, chops, game, a salad, dessert and coffee, are usually on the bill of fare.

Pretty street-gowns with bonnets are worn by the women, and morning coats are suitable for the men.

There is little formality about coming or leaving. An after call is expected.

LUNCHEONS.

These midday feasts are decidedly popular with Buffalo hostesses, and may be as elaborate as the purse and taste dictate.

The invitations for a ladies' luncheon are the same as for a dinner, and are usually sent out a fortnight before. They are engraved or written in this form

MRS. BROWN
requests the pleasure of
 MRS. SMITHS'
company at luncheon,
on Tuesday, July the first,
at one o'clock

Luncheons can be made a very showy meal, with fine linen, beautiful china, silver and glass, and a profusion of flowers. Fashion sensibly discourages elaborate favors, and a great variety of wines, bonbons, candied fruits, olives and relishes are in order.

The menu closely resembles a dinner menu, but soup is omitted, with bouillon or clam juice to take its place.

A pretty fashion is to serve luncheon at small tables. "The latest" is the standing luncheon, a convenient way of entertaining a large number. It is like a tea with a more elaborate menu.

Bonnets are worn at formal luncheons, and the gloves are removed at the table.

TEA.

The four o'clock is an ideal entertainment, embracing simplicity and good cheer. The term is frequently misunderstood, and the tea is overdone into a formal reception.

The tea originated in England, and is an afternoon set by the hostess for receiving a number of calls. Invitations are sent out two or three days in advance, "Tea at four o'clock" being written on the visiting cards.

Thin bread and butter, wafers, tea and cakes are offered by pretty girls in afternoon gowns. Russian tea is a favorite beverage. The food is served from a daintily-set table.

Women go to four o'clocks in handsome street attire. No after calls are expected. A visiting card, enclosed in a small envelope and sent to the house during the tea hour, takes the place of regrets.

High tea takes the place of dinner on Sunday evenings in cities, and consists of a delicious bill of fare served from a large table.

AT HOMES.

The formal reception is regarded with much favor here where, during the season, one is frequently called upon to leave cards at half a dozen houses during an afternoon.

The hours are usually set in the afternoon from three to six, or in the evening from eight till eleven, although many hostesses combine afternoon and evening receptions by having the hours from five to ten.

The invitations are usually engraved. If for a coming-out, the debutante's name is engraved below her mother's.

The hostess wears a handsome reception toilet and receives her guests at the drawing-room door. She is assisted by a group of matrons and maidens in evening dress, without bonnets.

Sauces, croquettes, rolled bread, coffee, chocolate, cakes and ices are served at small tables, or to the guests standing. Flowers bloom in profusion and music adds its charms.

The women wear rich gowns with dress bonnets, and after six o'clock the men come in full dress.

The "At Home" demands a call.

DINNERS.

Dinner invitations should be sent out a week or more in advance, and may be engraved in the third person, as

MR. AND MRS. DEFOREST JONES

request the pleasure of

MR. AND MRS. ALLEN GRAY'S

presence at dinner,

on Thursday, July first, at seven o'clock.

The reply should be sent immediately, couched in as formal terms.

For a little dinner, the hostess might write

DEAR MRS. GRAY Will you and Mr. Gray dine with us on Thursday at seven, to meet Mr. and Mrs. Blank?

Ever yours truly,

MARY JONES.

Everybody should go to a dinner intending to be agreeable.

A prompt arrival is rigidly required.

Ladies dress for a large dinner in low neck and short sleeves and jewels. Men are always in evening dress.

The host goes in to dinner with the lady for whom the dinner is given. The hostess comes last with the most important man.

The menu is usually long and tempting, but the best dinners are not always the most elaborate.

An after call follows.

EVENING PARTIES.

Musicales, card parties, receptions and dances while the evening hours away during the social season.

Invitations for parties and balls are engraved and sent out two weeks or ten days in advance. The following is the formula

MRS. CHARLES GARDINER

requests the pleasure of your presence Wednesday evening, June first at half-past nine.

997 Franklin Street

A number of Buffalo houses have ball rooms, but usually the lower floors are "crashed" for the reception and dancing, while supper is served in an upper story or in a tent on the lawn.

Cooling drinks are dispensed throughout the evening, and supper is served at eleven by a caterer.

Gentlemen should be presented to the young dancing set through the chaperons.

An orchestra plays the waltz dances, but the old fashion of occasionally introducing ~~wagon~~ dances for the benefit of the staid elderly set is resuppressing.

The cotillon never loses its popularity with the young, and with its bewildering complications and gay maneuvers, the German forms a brilliant ending to a dance.

WEDDINGS.

The most elegant invitations are engraved in solid form, on fine paper, something after this fashion

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM WILLIAMS request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter
HELEN to MR. JAMES JOHN JONES,
at the Church of the Redeemer,
Wednesday, June first, at six o'clock.

The at-home days may follow or be engraved on a separate card. The after reception card is also separate.

If a wedding be a small one, after cards are sent to the friends not invited.

The home wedding can be made a lovely affair with the altar and canopy of flowers, the music of a string orchestra, piano or harp, and the presence of the family and near friends.

The church wedding is formal and dignified, but can be made a thing of beauty if rightly managed. The organ plays softly while the guests assemble, the favored ones invited to the reception being shown to the front seats. At the chosen hour, the organ sounds the wedding march, the clergyman, groom and best man, take their place at the altar and await the bridal procession. The ushers lead, followed by the bridesmaids in pretty gowns in harmonizing colors. Child bridesmaids are very much in favor just now. Then comes the maid of honor, usually in white, and next, the bride on her father's arm. The bridal gown is plainly made, with high neck, long sleeves and veil falling to the hem of the long train. It is proper for the bride to be ungloved, and many brides prefer carrying a prayer-book to a hand-bouquet. Jewels, unless they be the groom's gift, are not worn.

This arrangement is subject to all sorts of changes, and the prettiest weddings are where originality and good taste have worked together.

At the reception, the bride and groom receive, assisted by the bride's parents. The bride leads the way to the tables, and the bridal party have a table, usually set in white.

The presents are usually shown, but without cards.

Calls from all the guests upon the family of the bride are expected within ten days, but this formality is often overlooked.

CALLS.

The fashionable hours for paying visits in Buffalo are from three to five-thirty.

Women usually make a round of visits before the holidays, before Lent, and at the close of the spring season.

On leaving the city for some time, a visiting card with "P P C" written in one corner, answers for a call.

On calling upon a lady for the first time, or upon business, the card is sent up. On other occasions the name is usually sent up and the visitor leaves her cards on the tray. A married woman calling upon a married woman, leaves her husband's card also. The fashion of flooding a house with cards for every lady in the family has gone out. One card suffices, unless it is at a tea for which the hostess has enclosed a friend's card. In that case, cards are left for both.

Brides usually set days for calls, and these days usually take the form of informal receptions.

Party calls are expected within two weeks, and if one neglects them, he must expect to see a long, black mark against his name in the social calendar.

LETTER WRITING.

Women of good taste usually prefer heavy, unruled, cream paper.

The present style calls for square paper and oblong envelopes.

In a friendly letter, the address appears at the top. The date is written out in full at the bottom.

SPECIMENS OF STAMPING DONE BY
 PAULS' 420 MAIN STREET

A married woman should never prefix Mrs. to her signature. She signs her name Mary Walters. If it be a business letter, or a letter to a stranger, she may enclose her full title in a parenthesis after her signature.

An unmarried woman may write (Miss) before her signature in a business letter.

THE LITTLE THINGS OF LIFE.

At a four-o'clock reception, on entering leave your card with the servant in the hall.

In sending invitations it is good style to address the envelope, Walter Walters, Esq.

The eldest daughter is Miss Walters on her cards. The other daughters have their full names engraved.

An invitation to a formal dinner is usually delivered by private hand. Wedding invitations are often delivered from the carriage.

R. S. V. P. is no longer deemed necessary. Polite people need no urging to reply to their invitations.

Mrs. Sherwood says "Be a gentleman, but talk about a man."
